CITY TRUSTEES

Interest in Appointment of Trustee—West Side Citizens Turn Out in Force—No Action Taken—Census Report Received

There was a crowd of spectators in the lobby on Monday evening, being principally citizens from the West Side, interested in the appointment of a member of the Board of Trustees. The names of Mr. L. M. Watson and Mr. Jos. S. Thompson were presented. It developed during the talk that a meeting had been held to make a choice of a candidate, and that said meeting had, after discussion of the matter, finally decided to support Mr. Watson. Mr. Willisford, having acted as chairman of the committee, acted in the same capacity before the trustees, presenting the name of Mr. Watson. Mr. C. J. Wolf presented the name of Mr. Thompson. The merits of Mr. Watson were presented by Messrs. Willisford, Leppelman, Letts, C. F. Parker, Payne and others. Messrs. Thomas, Daube and Wolfe presented Mr. Thompson's case. The matter for the time being was disposed of by motion of Mr. Coker to refer it to committee of the whole.

A communication was received from City Attorney Evans giving an opinion on the legal rights of a municipality in regard to franchises for public utility corporations. The opinion, in brief, was to the effect that the Southern California Gas Company does not require franchises on streets occupied by its pipe lines prior to last November, but must have one for all work since that time.

Bids were on file for the improvement of Sixth street from Glendale avenue to the east city boundary. They were opened and declared.

Grade, Mac Curb, Walk

Referred to city engineer.
Approved demands were passed upon. Report of treasurer for May was received, also report of manager of lighting department.

Report of the census enumerator was received and read, as follows:
Precinct No. 1..... 1423
Precinct No. 2..... 1064
Precinct No. 3..... 1457
Precinct No. 4..... 1447

Total..... 5391

An ordinance establishing the grade of Louise street was read a third time and adopted. An ordinance establishing the grade of Campbell and Dryden street was read first and second times. A new ordinance, taking the place of one recently reported, regulating water rates, was taken up and read first and second times, and laid over until next week for final passage.

The city engineer presented the application of Mr. T. A. Wright for permission to extend the curb and the lots southeast corner Broadway and Brand by making it square and projecting the sidewalk nearer to the railroad track. This led to a long discussion as to the ownership of the corner, the railroad company and the street having occupied it for more than five years.

Protest was filed by Mr. W. K. Dow against the opening and widening of Orange street; referred to engineer and city attorney.

In committee of the whole, the trustees agreed by a majority vote to elect J. D. Thompson as trustee in place of John Robert White, resigned.

A FINE BUILDING.

Parker and Sternberg are hunting for a name for their big business block on Brand boulevard below Fourth street, which is now rapidly being pushed to completion. This block is not only the largest but in many respects otherwise superior to any that has yet been put up in Glendale. The front will be highly ornamental, faced as it will be with green marble tile, copper trimmings and having plate and prism glass. No wood will be visible on the front except the doors which are to be of mahogany. There are four large store rooms on the first floor, the full depth of the building, 100 feet. A six-foot stairway leads to the upper story, opening to a transverse hallway. Between the hallway and the front of the building are eight office suites of two rooms each with glass partitions in the rear admitting light to the hallway. Light is also admitted by large windows at ends of hall. On the rear side of the hall are four suites of living rooms with all accessories in the way of closets, baths, etc. Back of these another large hallway divides the building in half and on the rear of this is a similar arrangement of living rooms, all on the same plan, making in all twelve suites of house-keeping apartments. The rear of the building is provided with porch, iron stairway and fire escapes.

NORMAL SCHOOL ANNIVERSARY.

The thirtieth anniversary of the opening of the Los Angeles normal school will be celebrated on Saturday evening next, June 15th. It is planned to make it a reunion of all who have ever been members of the faculty and the alumni of the school, with their "husbands, wives and friends." Tickets costing 25 cents may be obtained of Miss Burney Porter, secretary of the alumni at the school.

MEETING OF SUPERINTENDENTS.

A meeting of Sunday school superintendents is called for this (Friday) evening at the Christian church at 8 o'clock to decide in regard to the annual picnic and also as to delegates to the district convention.

THE WATER QUESTION

Generally Considered Paramount.
Trustees Will Probably Act Soon—Definite Propositions

Discussion of the two subjects, Water and Parks, has simmered down somewhat to this—that parks are desirable, but water is necessary, get both if we can, but get water in abundant supply and with good pressure just as soon as possible. The question of supply has been discussed pretty thoroughly and the general opinion is to the effect that it is abundant, but that there must be some development of underground streams. There is no difference of opinion in the belief that the supply delivered to certain portions of the city and adjacent territory is inadequate. It is ample for drinking purposes, sometimes, but because of lack of pressure it cannot be depended upon at any time. One portion of Glendale is supplied direct from the main pipes which are led down from the division box in Verdugo Canyon without entering a reservoir and consequently with a number of consumers drawing upon the supply at once the pressure disappears so that in case of fire there is practically no protection. In other parts of town the pressure is fair and users do not have cause to complain very often of scarcity, and yet the source is the same. It is evident therefore that with a better distributing system even without any increase in quantity the water supply would be immensely improved and could, for the present at least, be made satisfactory. The commission appointed by the chairman of the Glendale board of trustees some months ago will hold a meeting Thursday evening of this week and will probably make some recommendation. There are two or three practical propositions which will no doubt be considered, looking towards municipal ownership. One of these is an expressed willingness on the part of Mr. L. C. Brand to sell to the city of Glendale his Miradero Water Company. It is understood that Mr. Brand is willing to dispose of this water on the basis of $1500 an inch and allow the payments to extend over a term of years. It is known that Mr. Brand having large interests in San Fernando and elsewhere is willing to let go of his property in Glendale, and an offer such as we understand he has made, is an exceedingly liberal one. It is probable also that the owners of the Verdugo Springs Water Company (Messrs. Thom and Ross, principally) would sell that property, the water in that company representing 666 thousandths of the water of the Verdugo Canon stream. Then there is the Consolidated Company whose affairs are in a muddle and whose property may be purchasable through the trustees. If the city could secure the property of this company and would build a reservoir in the mouth of the canyon from which to deliver that water, it would solve one of the most serious phases of the problem. The matter has reached that stage of discussion that no doubt the trustees will soon decide upon some definite action.

THE CENSUS.

Glendale Has 5391 People.

The completion of the census of the population of Glendale gives a total of 5391, which is just about double the count of 1910 when the city was then constituted had 2734 people. The count by precincts is as follows, Louise and Broadway being the lines of division:
Precinct No. 1—1425.
Precinct No. 2—1064.
Precinct No. 3—1457.
Precinct No. 4—1447.

The last two are the precincts south of Broadway (fourth) Number 1 being the northeast and number two being the northwest precinct.

LATER—Mr. Moore has found in Precinct No. 2, 116 more people, and in Precinct No. 1, three more, making the total 5510.

PICNICS AT VERDUGO PARK.

The Sunday schools and other organizations of Los Angeles are taking more interest in Verdugo Park than heretofore.

Last week the St. Paul's Sunday school of Los Angeles held a picnic at Verdugo Park with about 400 members present and a few days previous Boyle Heights Sunday school held a picnic with 200 members present.

The Locomotive Engineers Union will hold a picnic at Verdugo Park on Sunday, June 23rd. They expect about 200 to be present.
On July 4th the Caledonia Club of Los Angeles will hold a picnic at Verdugo Park. They expect from 1200 to 1500 of their members present.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Regular meeting in I.O.O.F. hall tonight (Friday) at 7:45. A full attendance is requested.

THE SCHOOLS

Closing Exercises—Programs and Graduates

WEST GLENDALE SCHOOL.

With a class of twenty-two graduates, and an enrollment of about three hundred pupils, the West Glendale school closes today (Friday) with a very prosperous year to its credit. The work of the entire school has been most satisfactory and the experimental gardens in the schoolyard have been a great success. There are fourteen different varieties of plants, including flax, hemp, tobacco, etc. The children have taken great interest in the vegetable gardens, also, and in many instances are supplying their parents with some very fine vegetables. The Parent-Teacher Association of the school has a paid-up membership of over fifty and has done some splendid work during the past year. Under the auspices of this association a splendid program was given at the high school on Tuesday evening. This was a reception tendered by the mothers to the fathers, and the speaker of the evening, Rev. Mr. Blight of Los Angeles presented to the audience a fine address on "Fatherhood," a topic which appealed to all fathers present, and left many a thought with them over which it is hoped they will give serious study. The ladies in charge feel deeply indebted to Mrs. Shank and sister, Mrs. Johnston, who so kindly volunteered their services and sang in such a delightful manner, some of their choicest vocal selections. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening. Decorations were in charge of Mrs. Chas. H. Toll.

During the short administration of the new board of trustees they have filled their offices in a very satisfactory manner, in every way. There will be some few changes of teachers this coming year, but not exactly known at the present time. If the finances will permit, domestic science will be a feature of the school next term, but if not, the children will have those advantages at the intermediate school. The trustees are undecided as to whether the seventh and eighth grades will be taken out of the school or not, but owing to the crowded condition in the lower grades and the fact that the north end building will not be by any means finished by next term, it is thought that the only solution will be to install the seventh and eighth grades in the intermediate building. There are many protests against this however.

The school closes June 14 and the exercises will be held in the high school auditorium that evening at 8 o'clock. The following is the program:

Violin solo, Mendelssohn's Spring Song, Rachel McClure; Gladys Johnson, accompanist. Folk dance, "The Silver Thistle," seventh and eighth grade girls. Irish jig, eighth grade; reading, selected, Ruth Wilson; dance, "Twelve Little Blackberries," dance, "Sailor's Hornpipe," chorus, "Merry Jig," seventh and eighth grade girls; reading, "Two Travelers," Dorothy Crew; violin solo, Rachel McClure; minuet (Beethoven), Gladys Johnson, accompanist; class history, Willard Learned; class prophecy, a composite, Carlton Padelford.

A. B. Heacock, president of the board of school trustees, will present diplomas to the graduates, as follows: Clarence L. Ball, Dorothy C. Crew, Emma B. Cushman, Roy C. Freeman, Joseph M. Hartley, Francis Hoopes, Roy H. Hoopes, Gladys L. Johnson, Willard F. Learned, Rachel A. McClure, Margaret E. McPherson, John C. Padelford, Walter W. Peters, Nora E. Smith, Lila O. Todd, Harold U. Vanstrum, Caroline V. Watling, Ethel L. West, Ruth L. Wilson, Ruth J. Wright, Kenneth S. Taylor, Beattie E. Thomas.

FOURTH STREET GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

Held their closing exercises June 11, which were the best and most beautiful that have ever been given in that school. A miniature floral parade, made up of doll carriages, toy wagons, tricycles, etc., was one of the most attractive features of the afternoon's program. A May pole dance and folk dances were given by over one hundred little ones. Refreshments were secured by the teachers of the school. The entire program was exhibited out in the open, which made each number more effective. An exhibition of the work in different lines for the entire year was given. Over three hundred visitors greatly enjoyed the afternoon.

Mrs. Ryan (principal) most certainly deserves great praise for her untiring efforts in making the day a success.

At the close of the school year there were two hundred pupils enrolled in the school, and twenty-eight will enter the intermediate school.

THE SIXTH STREET SCHOOL.

Did not hold any final exercises for the public, but instead, the teachers entertained their pupils. Games, an informal program, and refreshments were the main attractions for the young folks. Miss Walte, principal, made a very happy and pleasing hostess to the youngsters.

Thirty-five pupils from the sixth grade will leave this school and enter the intermediate school next year.

The enrollment for the sixth street school is now two hundred and fifty-six.

THE INTERMEDIATE SCHOOL.

Held their graduating exercises last Friday, sending out fifty-four graduates.

AN URGENT NEED

Of Increase in Free Postal Delivery—Large Territory Neglected and Dependent Upon Antiquated Rural Delivery

It does seem as if the postoffice department should wake up to the necessity of providing adequate postal facilities for the rapidly growing section on the outskirts of Glendale and Tropic. At present the delivery from the two branch offices named is practically the same in outline as when Glendale postoffice was turned over to the Los Angeles about five years ago. The two or three local managers of the postoffice here have done the best they could, but their efforts have only been successful in getting a small addition to the working force of carriers and to extending the delivery within the original boundaries. The delivery district from Glendale is practically limited to within the following boundaries: First street on the north with the exception of a portion of Louise and Maryland streets. On the west, to Remington but not on that street above Fourth. On Fourth street west to Pacific down as far as Vine; thence up Fifth to Cherry, down Cherry to Sixth, out Sixth to San Fernando road; thence back on Vine to Central; down Central to Maple, thence to Brand; thence eastward along Tenth street to Adams; thence up Adams with small detours for parts of blocks eastward but stopping short of Verdugo road; east from Adams on Fourth street to Verdugo road and delivering to two houses only on Verdugo road south of Fourth; thence up Verdugo road to First. This leaves out a section south of Sixth street north of Ninth and from Glendale avenue to Adams, which is settling up rapidly and has had a large number of homes in it for two or three years past; in this district a few houses at each end of Louise are all that are served. These lines run generally up and down rapidly increasing the number of its homes, so that it frequently happens that a house on one side of the street gets free delivery while one on the opposite side must wait about two days for the rural delivery service. On the west side well built up streets such as Penn, Oak, Riverdale, Columbus and Lomita (west of Central) have no dependence for mail delivery other than the rural routes and get mail from Los Angeles less promptly than places, in some instances, five hundred miles distant. There are four carriers at the Glendale branch and one at Tropic, the service within the prescribed territory being as satisfactory as could be expected with that force, only an occasional delivery being missed. Extension of the territory for free delivery means of course an increase in the number of carriers, but the government should be able to stand the expense particularly now, when the department is at last self-supporting. The population of Glendale, Tropic, North Glendale and Casa Verdugo, practically one community separated only by imaginary lines, has almost doubled in the last two years and a large proportion of the increase is without the present free delivery boundaries.

This matter should be taken up by the people concerned and pushed through to a satisfactory conclusion. Certainly if the postoffice department can be made to realize the seriousness of the situation, it will act, but it is a proverbial large body slow in motion.

VINELAND ASSOCIATION PICNIC.

On Decoration Day there assembled at Eastlake Park in Los Angeles for their second annual picnic, a large number of people now at home in Southern California who at one time had been residents of Vineland, N. J. Some of them had not been in that city for forty years, while others came from there within a short time and the affair was a most pleasant and successful one. The principal feature of the day was the luncheon after which the business meeting occurred.

President E. H. Smith of Orange, refusing to accept a second term, was allowed to retire, and Mr. J. C. Sherer of Glendale was elected president of the society. Mrs. Elizabeth York of Pasadena, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. A. B. Avis of Pomona, first vice president; Mrs. F. A. Cornell, second vice president. Retiring officers, E. H. Smith, A. B. Avis, the newly elected officers and others, made brief addresses.

Sherer, of Glendale; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stearns, Mrs. Ethel Wade, Los Angeles; Mrs. J. N. Witham, Glendale; Miss Elizabeth York, Pasadena. There were others who did not register, among them Mr. Wm. Taylor of Los Angeles, who started the Independent newspaper at Vineland. Major Belmont Perry of Pasadena, president of the New Jersey Society, was also present after luncheon. The next annual meeting will be held at Echo Park, Los Angeles.

ELKS LODGE.

Now that the census shows Glendale to have over 5000 population, steps have been taken to organize an Elks Lodge, the matter being pushed by Peter L. Ferry, J. W. Lawson and others.

FOURTH OF JULY.

Is coming. Marshall Miller informs us that the ordinance prohibiting the firing of crackers and similar nuisances on that day will be strictly enforced.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.

The Sixth Street School Parent-Teacher Association held their installation of officers in the Sixth Street School building on Friday afternoon. The addresses of the day were given by Mrs. Chalmers Smith, who spoke on the work of the various departments, and by Mrs. Harry Houston, who took as her subject the "Imperial View." The following officers were installed for the coming year: Mrs. Charles E. Hutchison, president; Mrs. Lila Grosvenor, first vice president; Mrs. Grace May Roach, second vice president; Mrs. Rebecca McDonald, secretary; Mrs. E. S. McKee, treasurer. Mrs. L. A. Wood presented Dr. Jessie Russell, president for the past two years, with a very handsome gift in behalf of the organization, as a memento of its appreciation of her efforts and successes. During a pleasant social hour, light refreshments were served by Mrs. Edith Hunchberger, Mrs. Harry Hall, Mrs. Wilmot Parker, Mrs. Ethel Fay Whaley and Mrs. R. P. McMullen.

X. V. I. CLUB IS ENTERTAINED.

The X. V. I. Club was entertained last Saturday afternoon at the home of Misses Fred and Ruby Borthick. One of the features of the afternoon was a ride over the country in automobiles owned by members of the Club, after which all returned and partook of cool refreshments served on the spacious veranda of the Borthick home. It was one of the most enjoyable affairs the Club has had thus far. The members are: Misses Fred and Ruby Borthick, Lila McConnell, Iva Hunter, Lillian and Birdie Shropshire, Angie Zerr, Edna Klimcke, Cora Ward, and Mesdames Fern Hedges Newton, Fern Roberts, Mabel McFadden, and May Farnet Collins. The club will meet at the home of Lillian and Birdie Shropshire on the 22nd inst.

Items of interest about Alaska will be given by Mrs. Chas. Toll, who visited that country last summer. A cordial invitation is extended to ladies who are not members of the society.

Postponement

The meeting of the Citizens' League that was called for June 20th, has been postponed for one week because of the numerous school entertainments. The meeting will consequently be held on June 27th.

NEW WATER ORDINANCE.

The ordinance prepared by City Attorney Evans which has passed the first two readings by the city trustees and will no doubt be adopted next week, is a measure altogether favorable to the consumers, although Mr.
Evans has evidently attempted to be perfectly fair to the companies and has been reasonably successful. We understand that the Verdugo Springs Company and the Verdugo Pipe and Reservoir Company will accept the rates and conditions without protest.
What the Consolidated company does remain to be seen, as that company is affected more seriously than the others. The minimum rate of $1.25 is allowed; the companies are required to furnish connections and meters, the latter two requirements being points upon which the consumer is more favored than by the ordinance adopted in Tropic and is in accordance with the latest court rulings.

The eight-hour law for women which has been in effect but a few months in California is certainly not an unmixed blessing for the woman who works for wages, while in many lines of business it proves to be an unmitigated nuisance. In one line of business in Los Angeles the practice now prevails of sending women from one establishment to another of the same kind when their eight-hour day has expired, the law preventing their working as long as they wish at the same establishment, and as payment is based on the hour, of course the loss falls on the employee. The effect of the law generally is to take work from women and give it to men, possibly a blessing in disguise in those few cases where women have been working for wages who do not need to do so, but of doubtful utility in general. In San Francisco a few days ago, a girl who had been without work for a considerable time, secured employment as a chambermaid in a hotel.
But owing to the eight-hour law she was classed with the undesirable and only held the place until a man could be secured to fill it, then she was dismissed by committing suicide.

Sixth street is really going to be improved from Glendale avenue to the east city limits. This street is the connecting link in the Good Roads highway connecting this section with Pasadena and the country beyond.
When completed and when the bridge over the Arroyo is also finished, it probably will be about the same time, Glendale and Tropic will have moved appreciably nearer to Pasadena which will be brought within ten or fifteen minutes of these places by automobile, connected by a splendid highway which will lead from the foothill country on the east to the sea. The advantage to this section is bound to be great.

It looks very much as if in writing the Mission Play, John McGroarty has made himself famous. The play could only have been written by a poet and one who had thoroughly saturated himself in the history of the wonderful missions that stretch from San Diego to the bay of San Francisco.
The play is conceived in the spirit of reverence for the splendid achievements of the padres and there is something lacking in the person who witnesses it and fails to catch the moral uplift that permeates its every line.
It teaches history at a glance, so that the spectator whether he will or not, imbuces knowledge and inspiration as he listens to the sweet strains of the music of worship and sees the stately past glide by. And the stage is on historic ground, by the side of one of the oldest of the missions in the tower of which one of the same sweet-toned bells that summoned the new converts of the padres to duty, now rings, peals, and sweet notes of invitation to the restless twentieth century.

AT CHICAGO.

Considerable artificial indignation is being worked up by the political managers of the Roosevelt campaign over the action of the national committee at Chicago in seating so many of the Taft delegates whose places are contested. Every one who wishes to pass intelligent judgment on the matter should consider two or three facts in this connection before proceeding to express himself. In the first place those who wax indignant over the matter, usually do so on ex-parte testimony furnished by special correspondents who have no regard for facts in the case, but by editors who seem to think that their readers are incapable of forming opinions of their own and are swayed entirely by prejudice. In regard to the most of the contests the evidence shows that they were worked up by Mr. McHarg just on general principles and his work was so rank that, except in a few instances, the Roosevelt sympathizers on the committee refused to consider them seriously. Here is another fact which perhaps escapes the general public, owing to ignorance of practical politics.
The national committee was appointed by the last Republican national convention, a convention completely dominated by Theodore Roosevelt, and it is fair to assume that they were his friends and supporters. At that time, and the fact that the majority of them are unfavorable to him now, does not reflect upon them seriously upon the committee to put two Taft delegates from California, there is no doubt but that the committee acted fairly and in accordance with its own rules which are superior to those adopted by any state, for it must be remembered that this is a party convention. The call of the committee was for delegates to be chosen by districts—a district in San Francisco selected by an unquestioned majority of its voters. Two Taft delegates—now by what process of moral reasoning can it be demonstrated that because Los Angeles wanted Roosevelt delegates sent to Chicago, that district should be deprived of its choice?

It appears at this time that Mr. Taft will be the nominee of the convention; it further appears that there is a strong probability of the followers of Col. Roosevelt making a bolt and organizing another convention, which shall make him the nominee of a faction, in which case we imagine a wide smile extending the faces of Mr. Bryan and other Democratic possibilities.
Also there is a possibility of the nomination of Elihu Root of New York as a compromise candidate, in which event the Democracy will be haunted by glooms.

TO THE CITIZENS OF GLENDAL.

The undersigned came to this city some weeks ago bringing a proposition that if the people of Glendale will see their opportunity, and give it their support it will mean more to the prosperity of the city than any other that has ever been, or ever will be presented to them.

It is the proposed scenic railway to Verdugo mountain.

Many of the best practical electrical and mechanical engineers of Los Angeles have examined the new device and all unite in giving it their unqualified endorsement as being the most practical and the most economical in operating that has ever been invented.

The carrying capacity makes it so that thousands of people can be carried to the summit of the mountain at such a cheap rate every day that the earning capacity will be greater than any scenic railway in the world.

A small investment from the people in Glendale will give us sufficient means to give to the world a practical demonstration, after which the stock will advance more than one hundred per cent. It is the opportunity of Glendale.

Give the matter a thorough investigation and come in with our company and make the best investment you ever had a chance to get into.

Some of the best known citizens of Glendale will be on the board of directors, who will look after the interests of their fellow citizens and you need not be afraid to be caught by a "Get-Rich-Quick" wild-cat scheme.

A man was arrested by an officer of the humane society for driving a lame mule. He was fined ten dollars by one of Los Angeles' judges.
Let others profit by this warning, which might be taken by many in and about Glendale for often lame horses and mules are seen driven on our streets.

ates. The class entertained the public with a sketch entitled, "A Catalina Episode." Many local hits were given in the play, which were greatly enjoyed by all. The new auditorium seats six hundred persons and it was filled beyond its capacity.

Boys and girls dressed in white gave several folk dances. The girls carried wreaths of flowers, and the boys bayoneted, and the dances were very gracefully given.

An exhibit of sloyd, crafts, sewing and drawing was very interesting sight. The sloyd exhibit was made up of library tables, piano benches, chairs of oak and cherry, four large chairs upholstered in leather, etc. In the sewing room were underwear, aprons and waists, made by hand and machine.

The crafts exhibition consisted of needlework, metal and leather and stenciling.
The new school was open to the public through the courtesy of Contractor T. H. Addison. The contractor has also shown a great kindness to the pupils by letting them use the sloyd room since March 1st.

Mrs. and Mr. Anderson should be duly praised for their consistent work.
Punch was made by the mothers represented in the school, and served by the seventh grade girls.

Graduates who received diplomas were: Gilbert Anderson, Donald Barber, J. S. Beach, Edgar Boss, Marcellus Doll, Randolph Doll, Clifford Farr, Heacock, Max Jenny, Chester Nichols, house, Peterson Garret, Horace Lukens, Joseph Maier, Melvin Moore, pretty well made up their minds, have not officially engaged the new teachers for the coming year. Mrs. Ryan, Miss Waite and Mrs. Taylor will be retained as the heads of their respective schools, and a majority of the old teachers will retain their positions.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

The last week of school before commencement is, as usual, a busy one.
Examinations for the seniors begin Wednesday the 12th, while the other classes are looking forward and counting the days till Friday when their troubles begin.

A delightful entertainment was given at the high school auditorium last Thursday night, June 6. It was under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher association. Mr. Francis, superintendent of the city schools, gave the lecture. Very fine music was given by other visiting friends.

Monday, June 10, some of the girls in the eleventh English class gave a play called "The Troubles of a Speech-maker." Gladys Anderson was leading lady. The play was written by Laura Hibdon of the eleventh English class and adapted by Gladys Anderson.

Others taking part in the play were Helen Wright, Dorothy Morgan and Ida Wright, assisted by Earl Severance, Edwin Sadler and Elmer Nelson.

Prizes were given on Monday to the members of the harmonica class who received the first three places in the "framed picture of Mozart" was given to Cecil Crandall, winner of the first prize; a beautiful bust of Mozart was given to Alice Gray Beach, winner of second prize, and to Katherine Hobbs, winner of the third prize, was given a bust of Beethoven. The other members of the class deserve honorable mention also, as the composition of all the class songs were excellent.

On Saturday, June 8, the twelfth year trigonometry class spent the day in La Crescencia valley making several surveys. They found the per cent of grade of the road and laid out a large irregular piece of land. The boys had a delightful picnic lunch and every one had a good time.

The graduating class has been very busy for the last week preparing the music and other necessary stunts for its exercises next week. The members assemble at eight o'clock in the forenoon and are the last ones to leave the building before it is closed in the afternoon. If their exercises are not good this year, it will not be the fault of the students, but rather the presence of a "Jonah" in their midst.

Next Friday afternoon, from two to five, there will be an exhibit at the high school. The Girls' Glee Club will repeat the "Lady of Shalott," as part of the afternoon's entertainment, and short plays will be presented by the

the school are cordially invited.

Last Friday evening at 8 o'clock a large part of the boys of the school gathered in the gymnasium at an entertainment given by the Students' League of Glendale high school. The entertainment committee had provided three boxing matches, a juggling exhibition, cracker-eating and peanut-shooting contests to pass away the time. These were all very successful and entertaining. At the end of the program the refreshment committee served orangeade and sandwiches, which had been prepared by Miss Holloway and her domestic science classes and were very good. After singing songs the company dispersed.

The high school tennis team played Alhambra last Saturday. They had a hard match there and were defeated by a small score.

The tennis team will close their season Saturday, June 15, when they will journey to South Pasadena to humble the racket wielders of that burg. The team has had a very successful season, winning a good percentage of their matches.

The Glendale baseball team is having its spring practice and is working hard for a good team next year.
The Glendale baseball teams disbanded last Saturday, after one of the most successful seasons in the history of the school. Next year soccer football will be added to the list of athletic games played by the students of the high school.

The commencement number of the Stylus, the Glendale Union high school paper, which is published quarterly, will be ready for distribution this week. It will consist of seventy-two pages, and will contain half-tones of the thirty-three graduates. The editorial staff is: Editor-in-chief, Miss Marie Schwarze; assistant, Miss Elvira Utter; literary editor, Miss

MADE THE JUDGE BLUSH.

Two Jolts to His Dignity That Came in Rapid Succession.

The late Chief Justice Waite, a man of extreme dignity, started for Baltimore one afternoon many years ago from the old Baltimore and Ohio station. He discovered, to his horror, that he had only a few pennies in his pockets. His train was due to depart in a few minutes, and his engagement was an important one. He looked around for a friend, but found none. So he fled boldly up in line to the ticket office. When he reached the window he smiled pleasantly at the agent and asked him if he recognized him.

"Naw, I don't," snarled that amiable official. "What do you want?"

"I want a ticket to Baltimore and return," replied the justice. "I am

"DO YOU KNOW ME?"

chief justice of the supreme court. I have no money with me. I must have forgotten my purse. I can give you my personal check."

"Oh, you can, can you?" interrupted the agent wrathfully. "You mean you can't! That game don't go with me. I just had two members of the cabinet try to work me for tickets, and the supreme court gag don't go half as good. Brush by! There's others behind you with the price!"

Justice Waite was dumfounded. He couldn't fine the young man for contempt of court, so he just glared at him and blushed and perspired.

He dashed out of the station in hope of meeting some one who could identify him. He had only a minute or two left. At the entrance of a saloon across the street he accosted the proprietor, a short haired, freckled faced Irishman, with the frantic inquiry:

"Do you know me?"

"Sure I do, yer honor," said the man behind the bar. "Ye are wan of the bosses of the supreme court. I see ye every day goin' by here on the cars."

"Will you cash a check for me? Quick! I have no time to explain!" And the excited justice grabbed a pen from the desk near by and began to write like mad.

"Sure I will!" agreed the Irishman promptly. "I have seen ood' b'ys off on a tear before git out of money. Trust me, sir; I'll say nothin'. Is it a twinty ye want? Here ye are. Will ye have a drink before ye go?"

But the chief justice was on his way across the street, and he just managed to catch his train.—Edward Riddle Padgett in Washington Star.

A Surprise.

The Rev. E. J. Hardy, in his book "The Unvarying East," tells a delightful story. A young lady about to visit the Holy Land called on an old lady friend. She mentioned that she soon hoped to see Jerusalem, Bethlehem, Galilee and many of the other places mentioned in the Bible.

The old lady put down her work, removed her spectacles and exclaimed in great surprise, "Well, now, I know that all these places were in the Bible, but I never thought of them being on the earth."

Two Punsers.

Senator Pomerene of Ohio and Senator Martine of New Jersey had never been known to crack a joke. Consequently, when Senator John Sharp Williams announced the other day that he had heard some airy, humorous pleasantries passed between them, he was regarded as giving forth a peculiarly malicious falsehood.

"It's true, nevertheless," insisted Williams. "Senator Pomerene turned to Senator Martine and said, 'If Senator Burton were to go into the cellar would the coal shoot?'"

"At which Senator Martine instantly said: 'No, but the kindling would.'"

A Prize Definition.

A notably amusing answer was given by a student in the natural philosophy class at Edinburgh university.

Professor Tait had given as one of the questions in an examination paper, "Define transparent, translucent and opaque," which was dealt with by the student thus: "I cannot precisely define these terms, but I can indicate their meaning in this way: The windows of this classroom were once transparent; they are now translucent and if not cleaned very soon will be opaque."

The answer gained full marks from the amused professor.

Suggestive Questions

On the Sunday School Lesson by Rev. Dr. Linscott for the International Press Bible Question Club.

Copyright, 1911, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D.D.

June 16, 1912.

(Copyright, 1911, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D.D.)

Christ's Witness to John the Baptist. Matt. xi:2-19.

Golden Text—Among them that are born of women there is none greater than John, yet he that is but little in the kingdom of God is greater than he. Luke vii:28.

(1.) Verse 2—What had John done to be in prison?

(2.) Verse 3—What do you think had produced doubt in the mind of John concerning the Messiahship of Christ?

(3.) What, if anything, was there in Christ's manner of life that would be liable to make John doubt?

(4.) What are the causes which often produce doubt in the minds of good men on matters of which at other times they have been certain, as in the cases of Elijah and John?

(5.) Verses 4-6—At what point did John need most to be strengthened?

(6.) What did Jesus consider to be the supreme proof of his mission?

(7.) What today are the proofs for the divinity of Christ's mission and gospel?

(8.) Verses 7-8—What special scenes or demonstrations had attended John's preaching in the wilderness?

(9.) In what respect was John unlike "a reed shaken with the wind?"

(10.) What sort of clothing did John wear?

(11.) What significance is there in the fact that Jesus and John were not alike in their manner of dress?

(12.) Verses 9-10—In what respect was John more than a prophet? (This is one of the questions which may be answered in writing by members of the club.)

(13.) What is the evidence that Mal-thi, from which Jesus quotes, refers to John and Jesus?

(14.) As a matter of fact how did John prepare the way for Jesus?

(15.) Verse 11—What did Jesus mean by saying that there had not arisen one greater than John the Baptist, but that the least in the kingdom of heaven was greater than he?

(16.) Verses 12-13—How did the great revival produced by John's preaching resemble soldiers storming a city?

(17.) Why can no power in heaven or earth or hell keep a really determined man out of heaven?

(18.) Verse 14—John no doubt had the spirit and power of Elijah and was planned by God to be the forerunner of Christ. What, if any, evidence is there that God plans every man for a specific work and gives him the power to do it?

(19.) Verse 15—What qualities are necessary to understand spiritual truth?

(20.) Why are spiritual hearing and sight—to hear God and see him—possible for all?

(21.) Verses 16-19—Why does God direct or allow equally good men to adopt such different outward modes of life?

(22.) What was the real reason which caused so many to reject the preaching of both John and Jesus?

SPOILED HIS DEBUT.

Sullivan Made the Youngster Forget He Was in a Ball Game.

Umpire Billy Evans, one of the greatest story tellers in the big league, recently told an interesting little narrative of how Billy Sullivan, the brainy catcher of the Chicago White Sox, coaxed a recruit Brownie to whiff the osone. Ed Walsh was flinging for the Sox, and the kid Brownie, who had a reputation as a hitter, made his first appearance at the plate.

"What league are you from, sonny?" asked "Sully" in a kindly tone.

"I've played in the Southern Michigan the last two seasons," responded the youngster.

"Know 'King' Cole. I believe he came from your hustling league?"

"No, Cole was a year ahead of my time."

The call of strike one reminded the young Brownie he was in a ball game.

"I see by the records that you were one of the best hitters in your league," continued Sullivan, not noting the um-pire's interruption.

"Yes. I got along pretty well there," continued the bushy proudly. "I was hitting over .300 when the Browns bought me."

The umpire called two strikes and the youth looked crestfallen. He suddenly awakened to the fact that he was not paying any attention to Walsh's pitching and made a secret resolve to aim at the next ball.

"Have you any spitball pitchers in your league?" asked Sullivan, totally ignoring the fact that any strikes had been called.

"Not many," answered the juvenile.

"I don't think you will have any trouble making good in this league," "Sully" reassured him. "I like the way you stand at the plate." As the youngster was thinking over this bit of advice the umpire called "Three strikes, you're out!" Sullivan gave the youngster another kindly smile and said: "Don't worry; Cobb, Crawford, Collins, Lajole and all the boys do that once in a while. Pleased to have met you."

The youngster turned and gave Sullivan a hard look. He opened his mouth to say something, but changed his mind and did a slow Marathon back to the bench. — New York Press.

His Brand of Beauty.

It seems that Governor Wilson has no illusions about his claim to good looks. William Bayard Hale, in World's Work, says that the governor told the people during his New Jersey campaign that they might as well prepare themselves for a busy governor, for the Lord never intended him to be ornamental. "Yes," he remarked once:

"For beauty I am not a star.
There are others handsomer, far.
But my face—I don't mind it.
For I am behind it."
"Is the people in front that I jar."

A Difference of Opinion.

A friend once asked Uncle Joe Cannon for information as to the prospects of a politician who was at that time generally thought to be "on the ragged edge."

"He seems to think he's getting on all right," said Uncle Joe, "but others entertain a decidedly different opinion.
His situation brings to mind the story of the old lady up in Maine. When she was asked as to the whereabouts of her husband the dame replied:

"If the ice is as thick as Henry thinks it is he is skating; if it is as thin as I think it is he is swimming." — Lippincott's.

A Thrifty Scot.

Truly Scottish is the tale of the highlander that was told by Professor Stuart. The professor was making a tour of the land of the thistle; and one blistering hot day in a wild corner of the Pass of Glencoe he came across a fierce looking man, half stripped and reeking with perspiration, who was hurling great bowlders about him like one possessed.

"What on earth is he doing?" asked the professor of another fierce looking Scot, who stood breathlessly by watching the task.

"Hist, mon!" was the awed reply.
"Sandy's droppit a fourpenny bit!"

His Treat.

A farmer boy and his best girl were seated in a buggy one evening in town, watching the people pass. Near by was a popcorn vender's stand.

Presently the lady remarked: "My that popcorn smells good!"

"That's right," said the gallant. "I'll drive up a little closer so you can smell it better." — Everybody's.

Indispensable in Emergencies

THE sickness of a valuable animal on the farm demands prompt remedies.

It's a case for the veterinary—a case where minutes count.
That's where the Bell Service shows its value to the farmer.

By means of the telephone the veterinary is reached, and he at once tells the farmer what to do until he arrives.

No far-sighted farmer gets along without the protection of the Bell Service.

He can never tell when it is going to save him from serious loss. Besides, he has daily proof of its usefulness.

Work For the Editor.

Most any one can be an editor. All an editor has to do is sit at his desk six days in the week, four weeks of the month and twelve months in the year and "edit" such stuff as this:

"Mrs. Jones of Lost Creek let a can opener slip last week and cut herself in the pantry."

"A mischievous lad of Matheron threw a stone and struck a companion in the alley last Tuesday."

"John Doe climbed on the roof of his house last week looking for a leak and fell, striking himself on the back porch."

"While Harold Green was escorting Miss Violet Wise home from a church social last Saturday night a savage dog attacked them and bit Mr. Green on the public square."

"Lanah Trimmer was playing with a cat Friday when it scratched him on the veranda."

"Mr. White while harnessing a broncho last Saturday was kicked just south of the corner." — Boston Globe.

Too Familiar With Quotations.
The principal of a Boston school who requests that his name be withheld in order that he may maintain discipline in his classrooms tells this:

"When I was teaching in a school in the western part of the state some years ago I had some trouble in maintaining order among the girls of my classes. They were continually playing tricks on me and each other in the classrooms, and I decided to stop it.

The next day, following a breach of discipline, I ordered two of the girls to remain after school and gave them two long problems that kept them for a long time. At the opening of school the following morning I opened the day as usual by asking each member of the class for a quotation. One of the girls rose and quoted, 'With all thy fruits I love thee still,' and the other,
'The hours I spend with thee, dear heart, are as a string of pearls to me.' — Boston Herald.

A Tyrant and a Terror.

It has been said the life of Frederick the Great as a boy under his father, Frederick I., first king of Prussia, was worse than that of Oliver Twist or Smike at Dotheboys Hall. The old king was a tyrant of the worst description, and his own family experienced him at his worst. Frederick as a boy received instruction in music and French from refugees in Berlin, but when the king learned of it he stopped the music peremptorily.

The lad had little liking for military pursuits. His father suspected his son of heresy without having any clear idea of what his own theology really was. Once in a rage the king almost strangled his son with a window cord, and at length matters were brought to a crisis by the prince running away.
It was only through diplomatic intervention that Frederick's life was spared, for he was a soldier, and he had been guilty of desertion. In his father's eyes this was a heinous offense and so grave that a friend who was associated with the prince in his "rebellion" suffered the extreme penalty.

Name Unknown.

The men were eating their lunch in the temporary headquarters of the chief electrician when the telephone bell rang. Terry answered.

"Hello. Yes, this is the place, mum.
What's his name again? Stewart, is it? No, there ain't nobody by that name here that I know of. Boys, does any of you know a man around here by the name of Mr. Stewart?"

"Not I," said Pat.

"Nor I," said Mike.

Phelim and Aloysius shook their heads.

"There's nobody here knows who you want, mum," said Terry to the phone.
He returned to his dinner pail and a moment later suddenly laid down his sandwich and shouted:

"Boys, do you know who the man Stewart is that the lady wanted? Be sorry, it's the boss!" — Newark News.

Treated Her to a Speech.

I remember Winston Churchill as a young fellow, very much in society when he wished to be and as any council of a duke could be, but an enfant terrible to many a hostess, leaving his manners at home when he went out to dine and apparently some place else when guests came to his mother's house. Shortly after his return from South Africa he offered to show me his interesting souvenirs of the Boer war. But when we were en tête-à-tête he became so absorbed in discussing the question of the Boer government that I found myself, to my amusement, listening to an oration of three quarters of an hour. He turned his back upon me, striding over to a long mirror to deliver to his own reflection there, with numerous gestures and facial contortions, wheeling around at the finish to say, "It just occurred to me what a capital speech that would make in the house of commons some day."

(This was before he had ever won a seat.) "I wanted to get it fixed in my mind before I forgot it." — From "Intimacies of Court and Society," by the Widow of an American Diplomat.

His Real Motive.

General F. D. Grant at a Washington's birthday dinner in New York some years ago told a story about a young Boston Tory.

"This Tory," he said, "fought during the Revolution neither on one side nor on the other. He took a pleasure trip on the continent, and he didn't come back home again until the war was over. He was treated very coldly by society on his return, and this grieved his good old mother to the heart. The dear old lady tried to explain the matter one afternoon to a Boston belle.

"'Naturally, as the head of the family,' she said, 'my son could not take part in the war. To him fell the duty, perhaps the more arduous duty, of protecting his mother and sisters and looking after the interests of the estate.'"

"Oh, madam," said the belle, with an icy smile, 'you need not explain. I assure you I'd have done exactly as your son did—I'm such a coward!'"

Thrifty Papa and His Son.

A young Scotch friend of mine of high literary reputation generally spends once a year a month with his family on the outskirts of Edinburgh.
His father is a minister occupying a very enviable position. On the day of his departure my friend invariably finds on the breakfast table by the side of his plate a little paper carefully folded. It is a detailed account of the meals he has had during his visit to his father's house—in other words, his bill. But the son is as thrifty as papa and does not part with his coin before he has ascertained that all the items are accurate and the addition correct.

"Why, father," said he, "I see you have marked the bacon and eggs for my yesterday's breakfast. I assure you I did not touch the eggs."

"You were wrong not to do so, then, my boy. They were on the table.
Why didn't you help yourself?" — Paul Blouet (Max O'Rell).

Jealous Fishes in a Duel.

"Fish are liable to the same passions as you and I, and they fight and love as we do," said Dr. Francis Ward. "I can show you a photograph of a rainbow trout in what would have been a fight to the death if I had not interfered. In a pond were a big female trout and her partner, who resented the intrusion of another trout. Suddenly one fish charged the other and seized him by the jaw. He shook his opponent as a dog shakes a rat and kept on until his enemy floated to the top. Then I took the fish out and revived it with a little weak whisky and water." — London Mail.

The Usual Course.

She—What would you do if you had money enough to supply your needs?
He—I'd make a lot more to supply my wants. — Variety Life.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION.

Dr. D. W. Hunt of Fifth street had a birthday Tuesday last and it was well celebrated by small company of friends who gathered to congratulate the doctor upon his having passed another milestone in good condition, although a broken leg was one of the incidents that embarrassed him for a while during the year just ended. The company played Five Hundred until a late hour and enjoyed the excellent refreshments furnished by the hostess, leaving the honoree of the evening with heartfelt wishes for "Happy Returns."

To Mr. and Mrs. David MacDonald, Friday, June 7th, a daughter, Mrs. MacDonald is at Dr. Thompson's hospital, Burbank. Mother and child doing well.

She is coming. Turn thy steps this way.

Queen of the year, beloved June. Clad in glad Nature's grand array; And all thy vocal powers in tune. The smiling morn, the glowing noon, The twilight shadows turning gray, Opening of the silver moon, And welcome to thy coming day.

Oh, month of beauty what a boon— With power each finer sense to sway. Thy subjects would with thee commune. Come to us and prolong thy stay. No words of mortals can portray The languor of the dreamy hours We in thy presence while away, 'Mid moonlight, music, love and flowers.

Oh, month, the best in which to see And woo the hesitating bride. Many are waiting now for thee— Hasten, oh hasten, to the side Of maids forlorn, and let them be Subservient to thy magic spells. Fill lonely homes with wedding glee And ring aloud the "wedding bells."

PARENT-TEACHER FEDERATION.

The last meeting of the Parent-Teacher Federation for this school year was held Thursday evening. The program was of exceptional merit, and was as follows:

Piano trio, Prof. Clarence C. Krinbill, Dorothy Lee and Vera Kimball. Vocal solo, Mrs. William Herman West. Whistling solo, Mrs. W. D. Waterson. Group of Irish songs, William Herman West. Address, J. H. Francis.

Professor Krinbill was accompanist throughout the evening. The early part of the program was given by the High School Orchestra, under the direction of Mrs. Dora Gibson. An especially large and appreciative audience was present, and the evening in every particular was one of the most successful of the many successes given by this organization.

One of those Pineapple Specials at Nesom's Fountain is a revelation. Nothing to equal them.

The Westside Home Social gave two dances this week. Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Tallow, 1411 Oak street, and Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Transler, 1650 Oak street. About fifteen couples were present, including Mr. and Mrs. Transler, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Carvel, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbite, Mr. and Mrs. Fay, Misses Elsie and Ruth Gilhouse, Misses Lizzie and Ella Doyle, Mr. John Doyle, the La Com brothers, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Tallow, Mr. and Mrs. Merrick, and others. The dancing was interspersed with refreshments and such jollification as alone can be found in a genuine home social. This organization is planning a good time on a similar scale in the near future for the little ones of the neighborhood.

MAIDS AND MATRONS.

The Maids and Matrons of the Glendale Country Club are anticipating an especially pleasant gathering for their "Third Monday" meeting on June 17. Mrs. William Austin of Los Angeles was a luncheon guest Wednesday at the home of Mrs. A. T. Cook on Louise street.

Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Almee Bailey entertained at her home, "The Peppers," in honor of Miss Nettie Watson, who will become the bride of Mr. Will Turner on the 18th of June. Miss Watson has selected pink and white for the colors to be used at the wedding, and pink and white flowers were used throughout the spacious home, the dainty refreshments also carrying out the scheme.

The dining room was a bower of greenery. From a graceful basket, long streamers of pink ribbon formed the shower.

The afternoon was pleasantly passed hemming linen for the honoree. Later, the guests were folded in turn and tried their success in planning a veil on the picture of the bride. Miss Watson found herself the last, and walked blindfolded into the dining room, the double doors having been quietly opened. Daylight had been excluded, and soft pink shades caused a rosy glow over the showered table. The guests included Mesdames Lester Jones, Floyd Reed, John Adair Peablies, Archie McConnell, Claude Hilliard, C. E. Boss, G. L. Jordan, Danfor, and Mrs. Hilda Blanche Fair, De Los Jones, May Fair, Una Russell, Alice Watson, Beanie Turner, M. Turner and Kennedy.
